

Eagle Materials Names Michael Haack President and COO

Aug 13, 2018

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Aug. 13, 2018-- Eagle Materials Inc. (NYSE:EXP) announced today that Michael Haack has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of Eagle Materials Inc.

The announcement was made by Dave Powers, Chief Executive Officer, who commented that “Michael has been serving as our COO since 2014 and has distinguished himself across all of our lines of business. This expansion of Michael’s role reflects the company’s significant growth in recent years and the opportunity to build our leadership capacity, as we extend Eagle’s track-record as the benchmark operating performer in the industry.” Michael Haack added, “I am excited to take on this expanded responsibility, as we continue to pursue our well-established strategy of value creation and capitalize on the many opportunities we see ahead.”

Prior to joining Eagle, Mr. Haack spent 17 years at Halliburton Energy Services, holding successively important operating positions, culminating with the management of Global Operations for Sperry Drilling, a multi-billion dollar company in the drilling and evaluation division of Halliburton. Mr. Haack holds a Master of Science degree from Texas A&M University and a Bachelor of Science degree from Purdue University, both in Industrial Engineering, and an MBA from Rice University.
