Item 1.04 Mine Safety – Reporting of Shutdown and Patterns of Violations

Western Aggregates LLC, a subsidiary of Eagle Materials Inc., received an order at its mine facility located in Marysville, California on May 22, 2017 issued by the Mine Safety and Health Administration under section 107(a) of the Federal Mine Safety and Health Act of 1977. The order stated that a customer truck driver was standing on the edge of his front trailer leveling the load without fall protection (in violation of posted signage). No one was injured in the cited incident, and the practice immediately ceased. This order was terminated the same day.
